PROFESSOR CORYLLOS, asks the United States to help "end turmoil in the Balkans."
America should tell Professor Coryl-los that when the Balkans want to end the turmoil, they can do it. Until then, it will not be the business of the United States to end it for them.

THE artist, Frost, drew an old farmer starting to educate a young bull calf and harnessing himself and the calf in the same yoke. As he went down, dragged by the calf, the farmer said: "Stop us, somebody, drag our fool souls."
The Balkans can stop running downhill to destruction, if they want to stop.

THE German and Irish filers insert the words "thank God," or "by the grace of God," in every message describing their safe landing through fog and storm across the ocean after 24 hours of danger.

The professional atheist, unwilling to believe nothing that "has not been proved to him," would find his opinions changing, in a big earthquake, or above the ocean in a fog.

NORWAY has gone back to the gold basis, the seventeenth country on earth to do so. That basis is more or less of a financial fiction. There is not nearly enough gold on the earth to take care of its "gold basis" currency. Imagination does a good deal of it.

THIS country, it is said, produced last year less gold by tens of millions than was actually used in art and manufacturers, quite apart from any agency needs. If you could make gold artificially, and commercially, you'd get rich, unless your secret were known and gold demonetized.

SEVERE earthquakes shook Southern Mexico yesterday in Oaxaca and elsewhere. Several towns are believed destroyed and a sound like a cannon shot was heard from the hilltop of Texepoc, before the shaking of the earth began.

TREMORS were felt as far as Mexico City and doubtless many will connect this earthquake and others recently, with the religious trouble in Mexico.

Nothing could be more gratifying to the deeply religious mind than a powerful earthquake, terrifying the enemies of religion. Unfortunately modern earthquakes do not discriminate, and shake down buildings on the just and the unjust.

25 KILLED, 60 INJURED IN QUAKE

TREMORS ROCK BULGARIA AS PEOPLE SLEEP; DAMAGE HEAVY

Population Reported Panic-stricken by Sofia.

TOLL PILES UP

Villages of Phillipopol and Mattoser are Hard Hit.

LONDON, April 19.—At least 25 were killed and 60 injured in the earthquake which rocked Bulgaria last night according to a dispatch from Sofia today.

Fifteen persons were killed in the village of Phillipopol, near Philip-popolis, and ten deaths were reported in Mattoser.

Rainstorm Follows Tremors.
SOFIA, Bulgaria, April 19.—The population of a large part of Bulgaria was panic-stricken today by the series of earthquakes that rocked nearly the entire kingdom throughout the night.

The property damage was heavy.
It is feared that the casualties were severe.

Nearly the whole population of this city deserted their homes although no deaths were reported here. There were casualties in the suburbs, however.

A terrific rainstorm followed the tremors. Men, women and children, dressed only in their night clothes, huddled in the fields during the night, chilled by stormy winds and drenched with rain.

Phillipopolis, in the southern part of the nation, bore the brunt of the shock. Many buildings were destroyed.
The number of dead is unknown, owing to the interruption of communication.

Many buildings in Haslova were damaged or destroyed. The damage will run into millions of dollars.

DRIVER UNHURT AS CAR UPSETS

Assistant Fire Chief Elmer McMillan, East Third street, escaped unhurt when his automobile overturned on an embankment on the Wellsville-East Liverpool road near Kountz avenue, at 5:30 o'clock last night.

McMillan at the wheel of the car, a Nash roadster, started to pass a moving van which had stopped at a filling station along the highway, when another car approached from the opposite direction. In an effort to avoid a crash, McMillan headed his machine toward the embankment, causing it to upset.

McElroy Brothers' wrecker brought the car to their Market street garage.

MOTORIST HELD AS OHIOAN DIES

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 19.—Marshal Ferguson of Hubbard was held by police today in connection with the death of O. J. Boyer, garage proprietor, who, authorities allege, was hurled from the running board of an escaping automobile. When the motorist tried to escape after wrecking a gasoline pump Boyer jumped on the running board of the car and was shoved off, police said.

Red Cross Representative Here.
Frank E. Spaulding, Columbus,
Ohio representative for the American Red Cross, visited here yesterday to confer with heads of the East Liverpool chapter regarding activities in the district. Spaulding said that he would make a return visit here.

CIVIC LEADER

E. V. Wehner.

CHESTER, April 19.—E. V. Wehner, grocer and chief of the Chester fire department, was recently elected president of the newly formed Board of Trade here, which resulted from a merger of the Boosters' club and Business Men's association.

Wehner has long been active in civic affairs.

SMALL CROWD HEARS HOOVER RALLY SPEAKER

Congressman Fort, New Jersey, Makes Address.

LAUDS CANDIDATE

W. Campbell George,
East Palestine,
Presides.

Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover was termed "a friend of the American pottery industry" by Congressman Franklin Fort, East Orange, N. J., at a political rally held in the Pottery auditorium, West Sixth street, last night, under the auspices of the Columbiana County Hoover-For-President Club.

W. Campbell George, East Palestine, president of the W. S. George Pottery company, and candidate for district delegate to the Kansas City convention, presided. Less than 50 persons attended the meeting.

Congressman Fort touched upon the life of Hoover, whose ancestors, he declared, once lived in Ohio. He told of his work in Russia as a mining engineer and then of his activities in connection with the Belgian relief and the food administration during the World war. He ridiculed the assertion frequently made that Hoover's experience abroad had made him less an American. He said that Hoover was forced to register in England as an American citizen under the British alien act to be permitted to remain there to handle Belgian relief.

MRS. F. M. DOVER, COLUMBUS, DIES

Mrs. Maude Bickle Dover, wife of F. M. Dover, former resident of East Liverpool, died yesterday in her home in Columbus.

Besides her husband, she leaves three children, Donald, Frances and Lucille; her mother, Mrs. Belle Bickle, Detroit, Mich., and three brothers, Harry and Eugene Bickle, and Herbert Bickle of East Liverpool.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon in Columbus. Burial will be made there.

DEFENSE RESTS IN SINCLAIR TRIAL; OIL MAN IS NOT CALLED

Criminal Conspiracy

expected.

QUIZ HUMORIST

Ex-senator Elkins Testifies in Behalf of Defendant.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The defense rested suddenly in the criminal conspiracy trial of Harry F. Sinclair today without putting the oil man on the stand as expected.

Half a dozen character witnesses offered their testimony as to Sinclair's reputation for honesty and fair dealing today.

Ex-Senator David S. Elkins (R.) of West Virginia, was among them. Peter Finley Dunne, New York humorist, also added a word of praise.

Prosecutor Owen J. Roberts asked Dunne:

"Have you ever written any Dooley stories about oil?"

"Well, not yet," said the creator of "Mr. Dooley," as the court room roared.

A. C. Veatch, president of the Sinclair Exploration company, resumed the stand to explain a $25,000 payment made to former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall in May, 1923, which the prosecution had uncovered.
Veatch said Fall had been employed as an attorney to make a trip to Russia about oil concessions.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—A sweeping investigation into the leasing of government oil lands in the Salt Creek fields of Wyoming was proposed in the senate this afternoon by Senator Norris (R.) of Nebraska.

FIGHT ON FARM BILL NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The house battle over the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill was definitely set for next week by the house rules committee today. Twelve hours' general debate was allotted, with provisions for a night session if necessary to prevent the fight dragging out too long.

The committee placed the Jones-White merchant marine bill next in order, with four hours' general debate allowed.

STAMP DISPLAY HERE TONIGHT

Philatelic Society Exhibit in Carnegie Library.

An exhibit of stamps collected from almost every country in the world will be given at the Carnegie library between 4 and 8 o'clock tonight by the Philatelic Society of East Liverpool.
The society was organized in November, 1922, under the leadership of Bradley Buchanan. It meets each Friday evening either at the Y. M. C. A. or at the home of one of the members. Thirty-five members are enrolled, and during the last five years 75 have been associated with the organization.

Admission to the exhibit is free and the general public is invited to attend.

The baron said that the last half of the journey was made under frightful conditions, with fog
so thick that nothing could be seen. He sat in the back of the plane while Koehl and Fitzmaurice
took turns at the controls.

He slept at intervals and in his waking moments killed time by writing poetry.

Ask District Voters To Name Willis Group

Open Letter by L. H.
Brush Cites Value of Unpledged Delegation
at Kansas City.

SALEM, O., April 19.—Louis H.
Brush, of Salem, candidate for delegate to the Kansas City convention on the Willis ticket, has given out the following open letter to voters of the Eighteenth district:

"Frank Willis, our leader, is gone, but the principles for which he battled and sacrificed, survive. His death has created in the present Ohio primary contest, a situation without a precedent.

"The name of Senator Willis will appear on both the delegate and preferential ballot. The ballots are already prepared and no change can be made."

"If the Willis delegates are elected, it will be in principle an election of an unpledged delegation from Ohio.
It will place upon them the duty of making a first choice, guided by the judgment of the Republican voters.

"As a Republican of the Eighteenth Congressional district, you are entitled to know my views and those of Howard Wickersham, who is also a candidate for delegate. We believe in the two political party system, time-honored in the United States; two strong political parties, the party in power to carry on as leader, the other party to act as check. Government by a majority, the best kind known, is thus obtained. Contrast our two parties system with the many governments in Europe, where as many as forty or more political parties, thus giving government by a small minority, sometimes arbitrary, tyrannical, unstable and insecure, and oft times a new government over night.

BELLAIRE, O., April 19.—Challenging claims by Hoover supporters that he will carry the 18th district Republican vote at the primary election next Tuesday, Julius Lubalsky, local business man, today addressed a letter to Thad offering to bet $500 against $400 that the Willis candidates, L. H.

Brush, of Salem, and Howard Wickersham, of Steubenville, will win decisively in this district.

S. A. R. SESSION OPENS IN CANTON

CANTON, O., April 19.—With more than 100 delegates in attendance the Sons of the American Revolution were to hold their one-day annual convention here today. Business sessions, when committee reports were to be heard, were scheduled for morning and afternoon.

Tonight a banquet will be tendered the visitors at which Loren E. Sauers, state president, will preside and Judge Roy Williams of Sandusky will make the principal address.

the flyers were not lonesome. A number of persons had crossed Belle Isle Strait from the Labrador mainland to visit them.

Baron von Huenefeld paid wonderful tribute to his two companions, saying that they showed the utmost courage throughout the trip. They were cheerful and never once lost hope. When the landing was made Koehl and from straining their eyes through the fog in an effort to descry

GANG LEADER WAVES HAND TO THRON AS HE GOES TO DEATH

"Scourge of Egypt" Pays Penalty on Gallows.

ASKS FOR POISON

Goes to Gallows for Murder in Illinois.

BENTON, Ill., April 19.— Charlie Birger, "scourge of Egypt," went to his death on the gallows here at 9:51 a. m., today for the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City, Ill.

Assumes Air of Galety.

Birger was led from his cell at 9:45. He walked the short distance to the gallows unassisted and once upon the wooden structure, waved his hands to the vast throng that had gathered to see the "scourge" in his last minutes on earth.

State's Attorney Roy Martin and Sheriff James E. Pritchard approached him and said a few words. Birger assumed an air of galety which the strain in his face belied.

Not once during the long night had Birger closed his eyes.

When dawn came he was asked if he wished anything to eat.

"Yeah," drawled the gangster general, "Yeah, gimme a couple ounces of carbohic acid."

When it came time to lead him to the gallows, Birger as if with a great effort drew himself into a semblance of composure. He waived assistance in walking up the scaffold steps.

The noose was adjusted about his neck and the executioner was fastened about his small, lean body.

The trap was sprung at 9:51 and he was pronounced dead at 9:58.

GIRL BURNED IN GRASS FIRE

Firemen Answer Seven
Alarms Within 24 Hours.

Grace, four-year-old daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Charles Frost, Oakwood avenue, Pleasant Heights, sustained burns to her face when trapped by a grass fire which swept the hillside near the Washington school, yesterday afternoon.

The child, accompanied by a dog, wandered from her home and approached too close to the blaze. Boys, from the Washington school who were dismissed to assist firemen in extinguishing the blaze, rescued the tot.
Firemen and volunteers finally extinguished the blaze which for a time threatened nearby houses.

Fire, believed to have been caused from a lighted cigarette, menaced the Milligan Hardware & Supply company's building at 2 o'clock this morning. J. E. Blake, merchants' night watchman, discovered the blaze in a corner on the first floor and called firemen. A small hole was burned in the floor, the loss amounting to less than $25, according to an estimate of the fire department.

Six other fire calls were answered by the fire department between noon yesterday and noon today. One of these blazes was in a pile of old railroad ties near the East Liverpool Sand company's quarters along the river front which was discovered at 10:30 o'clock last night. Grass fires on Pleasant Heights, Main boulevard, Oak street, Smithfield street and Deldrick's hill caused other alarms.

AIRPLANE CRASH KILLS TWO MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Offi-

2 DIE, 10 HURT AS WALL FALLS

Chicago School Lads Buried Beneath Bricks.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Two boys were killed and ten injured here today when a seven-foot wall surrounding the boys' yard at a public school, collapsed without warning and buried them beneath brick and mortar.

The dead are: Stanley Knak, 7, and an unidentified boy.

The ten injured were rushed to hospitals. Some of them may die, physicians stated.

The boys were playing in the yard waiting for the opening of school when the wall collapsed. Other child-from the debris.

German-Irish Flyers Still Determined to Reach Mitchel Field in Bremen Plane

BY LESLIE ROBERTS.
(Copyright, 1928, by International News Service. Reproduced in whole or part prohibited.)

CLARKE CITY, Que., April 19.—
The first definite and official information as to the plans of Baron von Huenefeld and Capt. Hermann Koehl, of the German trans-Atlantic plane Bremen, was received here today by radio and dog sledge from Geensley Island where the famous ship landed.

Baron von Huenefeld, in a statement to International News Service, revealed that the flyers are still determined to reach New York in the Bremen.

"After the arrival of Aviator
Charles A. ("Duke") Schiller at Greenely Island it was determined that Major James E. Fitzmaurice should fly back to Murray bay with Schiller for replacement parts so that the Bremen could be repaired," said the baron. "We decided to repair the undercar-riage and put a new propeller on the plane and then the three of us would continue our flight to Mitchel field.

"Fitzmaurice did not desert us.
There was no misunderstanding.
He merely returned to civilization from our lonely outpost to get spare parts for the machine.

Capt. Koehl, Dr. Louis Cuisinier and the mechanic of the Schiller plane decided to remain here at Greenely Island with me when Fitzmaurice hopped off for Murray Bay. I hope that Fitzmaurice will be back this evening or tomorrow. I think the repairs can be made in a day so that we may be able to hop off on Saturday."

The baron said that the last
half of the journey was made under frightful conditions, with fog
so thick that nothing could be seen. He sat in the back of the plane while Koehl and Fitzmaurice
took turns at the controls.

He slept at intervals and in his waking moments killed time by writing poetry.

"It was Fitzmaurice who first discovered land," said the baron.
"He told Koehl and we set off flares to see if we could get any response. The flares lighted up the air beneath us and we saw that we were flying over a dense forest.

"Koehl made out the lake and we descended. That was about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Despite the perils and the hardships of the long flight we felt sure all the time that we would succeed.

First we ran into adverse winds, then rain, then fog, then a gale of wind, fog and snow combined.
The worst troubles were off the Grand Banks of Newfoundland—a district known for years in shipping circles as the graveyard of the Atlantic.

The baron told of the pleasant surprise he and his companions felt when Schiller arrived in his plane on Sunday. In the meantime the flyers were not lonesome. A number of persons had crossed Belle Isle Strait from the Labrador mainland to visit them.

Baron von Huenefeld paid wonderful tribute to his two companions, saying that they showed the
utmost courage throughout the trip. They were cheerful and never once lost hope. When the landing was made Koehl and Fitzmaurice were nearly blind
from straining their eyes through the fog in an effort to descry land.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."
But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.
Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.

9c GASOLINE FOR EAST LIVERPOOL

A startling announcement that will be welcomed by the readers of this paper is the perfection of an invention that practically cuts gasoline cost in half. In actual test one gallon of gas has been made to run a car 59 miles. Thousands of cars have been equipped and the owners report amazing gasoline savings, more power, instant starting, quicker pick-up and disappearance of carbon. So that this invention can be installed on every car, E. Oliver, 999 722 S. Third St., Milwaukee, Wis., is seeking men in different localities to handle exclusive territory for him. Goitre Not a Disease

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery
Milwaukee, Wis.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. 762, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The Doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. To Everyone Interested in Getting a 1929 Automobile in 1928

The New Reo Flying Clouds are announced as 1929 automobiles for the very simple reasons that they give you today—

The riding ease
The handling ease
The safety braking
The simple, vigorous lines
The carefully appointed interiors
The ability to get-up-and-go—that many other cars will still be trying to equal—in 1929.

A few of many Flying Cloud 1929 technical advancements are listed to the left. With Reo's moderate production such design improvements change from blue prints into motor cars months sooner than they could in the huge plants which build most of America's automobiles.

So Reo can give you 1929 Flying Clouds in the very heart of the 1928 season.

Try out a New Flying Cloud for yourself. The complete story of true 1929 motoring will be told you in a new, sweet-running way.

FACULTY STRIKE MAY BE CALLED

Resignation of St. Clairsville Superintendent Demanded.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., April 19.—Following a student "strike," Monday, when 400 pupils paraded the streets here, refusing to attend classes, the St. Clair high school today faced the possibility of a "faculty strike."

The students refused to return to school Monday as a result of the forced resignation of J. H. Earps, principal, Saturday. Earps had been charged with stealing candy from a confectionery. He is said to have admitted the charge, declaring that he and several students committed the theft "in a spirit of play."

Monday morning, after the board of education had demanded and received Earps' resignation 400 students paraded the streets, headed by the high school band, and carrying banners bearing such slogans as "We want Earps" and "We want justice."

In the afternoon the board of education consented to give Earps a hearing and sent a wire to him in Pittsburgh. Ten members of the faculty had supported the students in their protest and adopted a resolution urging reinstatement of Earps.

Superintendent W. E. Arter failed to sign the resolution and the protesting faculty members now say that unless the board of education dismisses him, at a meeting tomorrow night, they will all resign.

Earps had not answered the telegram requesting his return this morning and there was no indication as to the attitude of the board of education towards the faculty members' ultimatum. Superintendent Arter was reported on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

Nearly 20,000 passengers and more than 1,000,000 pounds of freight were handled at the airport of Hamburg, Germany, last year.

CLEVELAND MAN GETS LORAIN POST

COLUMBUS, O., April 19.—Louis Wilcox, Cleveland, will take over the duties of O. E. Rankin, state prohibition agent at Lorain who resigned Monday, according to announcement by state prohibition commissioner B. F. McDonald.

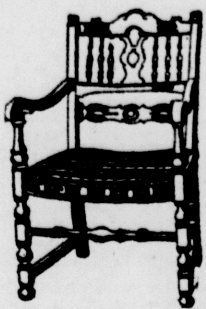

Rankin, who said last Thursday, that he had no intention of resigning, wired McDonald that he was resigning to become a candidate for sheriff of Lorain county.

Wilcox was in Columbus today for a conference with the state commissioner. He refused to say when he would go to Lorain. He indicated, however, that he would take over the Lorain district very soon.

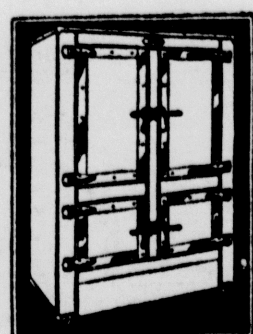

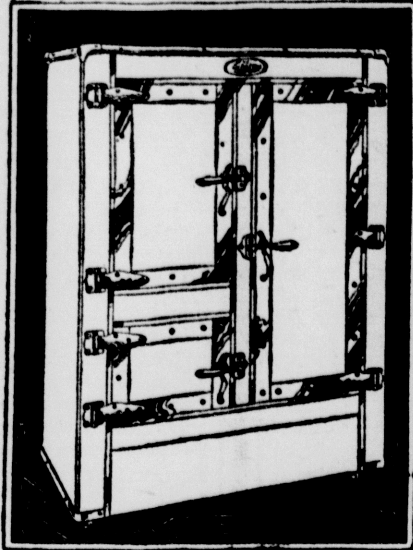

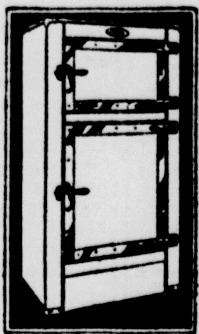

Wilcox has been in the state prohibition service since February 21, 1924. He has been with the Cleveland department for the past year.

Registration Days

The deputy state supervisors of elections have designated Saturday and Monday, April 21 and 23, as registration days in East Liverpool, the only enrollment city in Columbiana county, for next Tuesday's Republican and Democratic presidential preference primaries.

Registrars will be on duty in the city's 22 precincts from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 5 to 10 p. m. each day to enroll voters and also issue transfers to electors who have changed their places of residence since the November balloting.

Men and women who registered for the presidential election in 1924 or a subsequent balloting, are qualified to vote at the coming primaries. New voters as well as those who neglected to enroll last fall must register if they expect to vote Tuesday, when Ohio will express its preference for party candidates for the presidency and select delegates to attend the Kansas City, Houston and two state conventions.

It is a duty as well as a privilege to vote, but the right of franchise shall be denied all East Liverpool citizens whose names do not appear on the precinct registrars' books. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Boy Scouts—Moulders of Men

East Liverpool, which manifests its interest in boy welfare by supporting many troops, naturally is interested in the eighteenth annual convention of the Boy Scouts of America which will be held in San Francisco this spring.

The Boy Scouts are representative of the American idea of America. They could give a good answer, if any were needed, to the "debunkers" of our early history, who, rightly or wrongly, are accused of degrading patriotism. The training of the Boy Scout on his marches and in his camps, is, in many ways, like that of the soldier. This same training also resembles that of the engineer and the geodetic surveyor—than which nothing in human life is more romantic or more manfully practical. If Jules Verne were writing his romances of earth and sea and moon today he would surely find good material for heroes to his liking in this organization.

The Boy Scout is systematically taught not only love of nature, but some comprehension of her works and laws. Such teaching is a hundred-fold more important now than ever before, because a hundred times more people now see something of the country, thanks to the universality of the space-devouring auto.

Boy Scout life is, of necessity, outdoor life. He lives in close companionship with woods and fields, and rivers and lakes, and hills and mountains. One of the most important books in his library should be Fremont's "Narrative" of explorations in the Rocky mountains and the Far West, away back in the forties of the last century; and another should be the narrative of the still earlier Lewis and Clark expedition across the continent; and a third, Washington Irving's fascinating story of "Astoria."

The Boy Scouts have to learn to do what all explorers and pathfinders are under necessity of doing, viz: to look out for themselves, to know their whereabouts, and to know how to meet and overcome all sorts of physical difficulties and obstacles. What can better become a man than such requirements? How pitiful appear the accomplishments that mere fashionable society can offer in their stead! But this, of course, does not mean that the Boy Scout does not, or should not, receive the training belonging to good manners. So far from that, he is taught, as Post Pointers and Annapolis men are, to be a gentleman in conduct and thought, and to have a high sense of honor. He is taught to revere God.

One of the most pleasing features found in the instruction given to the Boy Scouts is the acquaintance that is afforded him with the starry heavens. He is not long in learning to find his way through an unknown region by consulting the wonderful clock and map displayed over his head. Such words as latitude and longitude quickly come to have a live meaning for him, although to many graduates of schools they remain mere words all their lives. Nature can never be clearly understood in books, nor from experiments in laboratories, either. She must be met face to face—thus only can her fascination be felt and her deepest meanings be comprehended.

Boy scout life would be worth while if for no other reason than that it helps to counteract the increasing tendency of city life to shut people away, body and mind, from country sights, sounds and influences. The simple fact that it is all but impossible to see the universe from city streets and squares is condemnatory. The more compact a city and the more brilliant its night illumination, the more narrowly its inhabitants are confined to purely earthly things.

Compensation For Kissing

Kissing, in the eyes of the great commonwealth of Ohio, under certain incidents, has been officially recognized as an accident, and the victim of such osculations may collect compensation.

It probably happens that many persons are kissed, but never before in the history of the workmen's compensation has an application been filed for such an award.

At that, it wasn't really the kiss which caused granting of the award, but the after effects of the kiss. The victim of the accident is a nurse in Jane M. Case hospital at Delaware.

A patient was thought to be suffering from influenza. The patient developed scarlet fever and became delirious. The patient arose from her sickbed and strolled through the corridors of the hospital. There the nurse found her.

It naturally follows that the nurse would return the patient to where she belonged. It was during this act that the patient threw her arms about the nurse and kissed her, just to show her appreciation of the attention she was receiving.

Later the nurse contracted scarlet fever and for several weeks was seriously ill. She asked for compensation from the state for the time she lost, due to the illness contracted in the line of duty while returning the fever-ridden patient to her ward.

The state commission has held that the nurse's illness was a result of the unwelcome kisses and that in the eyes of the law this was an injury.

HASKIN DAILY LETTER

By Frederick J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 19.—Of all golfing crowns, that conferred upon the winner of the British open championship has long been the one that most golfers would prefer to wear. The British amateur, and the United States amateur and open, have been looked upon as highly desirable championships, but the one that approximates a real world championship has been the British open. It brings together not only the best amateur and professional golfers of the country that invented and developed the game, but those of all the rest of the world. The man who wins it has nothing more to look forward to, save to hold the crown.

And for almost 60 years the United States never had a look-in in the contests for that crown. Then, in 1921, Jock Hutchinson won it, and it has been kept in the United States ever since, except in 1923, when A. G. Havers won it. Walter Hagen captured it in 1922 and 1924 and Jim Barnes surmounted his four-leaf clover with it in 1925. Bobby Jones, the peerless American amateur, captured it two successive years in 1926 and 1927.

But Jones decided he would not go over to defend his title this year, other American contenders were few, and it appeared that this country's supremacy in golf was about to go by default. Now, however, it is announced that Walter Hagen will be on hand again when the British open struggle begins over the St. George's and Prince's courses at Sandwich on May 7.

Hagen was selected to captain American professionals in their team invasion of England this year to play for the Ryder Cup, but it was found that the date proposed for that contest would conflict with that of the Walker Cup international, which is the amateur team contest between English and American teams, so the Ryder Cup games were postponed until 1929.

That postponement left it doubtful whether any American professionals would be in England this year for the British open, and with Bobby Jones out, it appeared that the United States might go unrepresented in the big championship, or be indifferently represented. But Hagen was able to arrange for a series of exhibition matches that made it worth while for him to do the trans-Atlantic hop, and so this country will have at least one of its star golfers at Sandwich.

In addition to being a two-time winner of the British open, Hagen has won the United States open twice and has annexed most of the minor professional championships in this country.

British supremacy at golf was virtually unchallenged until Francis Ouimet, a youthful amateur, routed the greatest of the professional invaders in 1913 at Brookline. Prior to that time British players had considered it scarcely worth while to come over here, either for our amateur or open championship, and Americans, with the exception of Walter Travis, had never had a real look-in abroad.

But that year the British realized that the American game was improving and they sent over their best to contend for the United States open. At the end of the tournament there was a triple tie, with Harry Vardon and Hed Ray, of England, arrayed against the erstwhile American caddy, Ouimet, who had never been heard of before in a national contest. Ouimet won the play-off in one of the most spectacular games ever witnessed.

Only once since that time has a British player won our open championship honors—Ray, in 1920—and not once has our amateur title been taken abroad.

Questions And Answers

By Frederick J. Haskin.

Did you ever write a letter to Frederic J. Haskin? You can ask him any question of fact and get the answer in a personal letter. Here is a great educational idea introduced into the lives of the most intelligent people in the world—American newspaper readers. It is a part of that best purpose of a newspaper—service. There is no charge except two cents in stamps for return postage. Address Frederic J. Haskin, Director, The East Liverpool Review Information Bureau, Washington, D. C.

Q. It is insisted by some golf players that a club may be soled wherever there is grass, even in a hazard. Is this true? May a club be soled in a trap if there is grass growing in it? H. T.

A. The club may be soled only in grass which is a recognized part of the fairway. If the grass grows down into the hazard, it is permitted to sole the club if the ball rests completely on the grass and is not touching the natural soil or sand. In case a tuft or two of grass grows in a bunker and the ball rests on that grass—which might well be described as "casual grass"—you are not allowed to sole the club.

Q. What is the dollar actually worth today? M. N. B.

A. The present purchasing power of the dollar is about 71 cents, as compared with the 1913 or pre-war 100 cents a dollar.

Q. How many automobiles did this country sell abroad last year? L. K.

A. The United States exported in 1927, 384,000 automobiles, valued at $278,083,000.

Q. What are the names of the various wedding anniversaries? T. B. S.

A. First year, paper; second, calico; third, muslin; fourth, silk; fifth, wooden; sixth, iron; seventh, woolen; eighth, bronze; ninth, pottery; tenth, tin; fifteenth, crystal; twentieth, china; twenty-fifth, silver; thirtieth, pearl; thirty-fifth, ivory; fortieth, ruby; fiftieth, golden; seventy-fifth, diamond.

Q. When did Congress first pass a rivers and harbors bill? J. H.

A. While an appropriation of $30,000 was made in 1802 for the construction of public piers at Philadelphia and one of $22,700 in 1822 for a harbor of refuge in Delaware Bay, the first approach to a rivers and harbors bill was made in 1826, when about $150,000 was appropriated for carrying on work in about 20 localities.

Q. Is the radio used in surveying? I. B. C.

A. The radio has been used recently in various surveying work, notably in Alaska. In order to determine the longitude of a place, it was formerly necessary for a surveyor to have accurate chronometer, from which he knew the standard time. Now if he has a radio set he can pick up the time signals from the larger radio stations, especially the Arlington signals.

NEW YORK Day By Day

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Cafe entrepreneurs offer a sedate new subtlety these days to attract trade. They have evidently sensed the decline of the baroque type of restaurant with fantastical hangings, dazzling lights and screaming whine of jazz.

The new cafe is sombre and musicless and instead of being on a prominent street is likely to be plumped down between a Socony and Texaco sign on a gloomy street of garages. The woodwork is dark, relieved here and there by a mirror and suggesting Foyot's or the Volain in Paris.

The new idea is to offer perfect food by attentive waiters on the theory that to the gourmets who will be attracted the price doesn't matter. And, of course, it doesn't. There is no outside abracadabra as expressed in flashing signs and opulent door-men.

The places are genteel and a patron finds himself unconsciously lowering his voice. The knack of displaying things temptingly is stressed. This requires writers not brought up in the American slap-at-you school. They are Europeans whose fathers and grandfathers were waiters before them and unfortunately there are only a few left.

Dining in the new type of place—far I have found three—is priced about a third higher than the average first-class place. But there is compensation in devotion to cuisine details. The toast for the caviar for instance has a crispness and thinness few cafes achieve.

Crepe Suzette is a marvelous dish, but half of its charm is in the hocus-magus of its making. There is a fascination in watching the artist touch it off into dancing blue brandy flames and you are amazed it comes to you soft and succulent instead of being burned to a crisp.

There is something appetizing whetting, too, mixing salad dressing at your table. It has a distinct savour whereas, if it comes to you from the kitchen, you have a feeling it was poured from a rummy-necked jug. It is these graces that add charm to the new type of cafe. Their popularity will last—well, until New York hungers for something new.

YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth A Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland.

In chewing the food, a child should use both sides of the mouth. Otherwise one side of the face is likely to be more developed than the other. Certainly you don't want your child to be so afflicted.

It takes a lot of patience and good sense to bring up a child in the way he should go. He must be watched carefully to determine what his habits really are. When a real fault is discovered you should carefully explain why the thing in question is a fault. The child will have an intelligent reason for mending his ways, without thinking his parent is "cranky."

Do you ever observe the teeth of a healthy dog? They are white and clean and shining. They are made so because the dog chews rough hard food. This food cleans his teeth and polishes them. The food acts like a buffer, giving smoothness and lustre to the teeth.

If you do not use your teeth for chewing hard food, no matter how much you use your toothbrush, there may be collections of tartar on the insides or at the roots of the teeth. To prevent this accumulation, both sides of the mouth and all the teeth should be used for chewing.

If this rule is adhered to there will be little tartar. If not, there will be gradual deposits at the neck of the teeth. The tartar may even creep down between the teeth and the gums. The gum being pushed from the teeth, there is formed a pocket in which the germs can grow and thrive.

We certainly take into the mouth with our food, and in other ways, innumerable germs. Fortunately most of them are harmless and even friendly. But some of these germs are of the pus-producing varieties. If some of this kind are planted in the gum pockets, they get to work on the tissues of the mouth. Pretty soon you may have pyorrhea—Rigg's disease.

Most chronic diseases of importance date back to early life. Proper habits formed then will prevent misery in adult life and old age. No greater blessing is to be had than the possession of good teeth which remain good throughout a long life-time.

As a matter of fact, long life depends to a considerable degree upon good teeth. For the sake of long life and comfort during it, you should watch your teeth and keep them in perfect condition. To help to accomplish this end, you should chew your food on both sides of the mouth and teach the children to follow this rule.

It will be easy to get the little girls to do this, because they don't want to have one-sided faces. It is harder to get the boys to practice it, especially if there happens to be a toothache, or for any other reason, tenderness on one side. But it is a thing that must be done for the good of the teeth, as well as the looks.

I have never been able to choke up much over the millionaire hypocrites who carry personal physicians with them while traveling, but I confess to crying out loud and wringing my hands at the Long Island matron who carried a veterinarian specialist with her for her dog on a trip to Europe.

On top of that, one of the grand automobiles that bowls down the avenue has a specially built in cushioned seat for the owner's Pomeranian. And what is more, there is a mirror directly in front of the seat so the pet may admire itself.

When I think of Pomeranians I always think of Bide Dudley, distinguished as a paragrapher, orator and father. Mr. Dudley has seen much of life and is inclined to be a medium-boiled cynic. Many years ago he owned a beautiful Pom and every evening he could be seen promenading Central Park West with his pink be-ribboned pet. Admiring ladies would often stop and admire the animal's name and Mr. Dudley, turning red about the ears, would have to reply: "Boo."

The Harlem Black Belt this week offered a parody poster reading: "The Stay Woke Ball—open from 5 o'clock p. m. until 5 a. m. the next morning."

The highest priced cigarette case making establishment in New York has been discovered on Park avenue. It occupies a small room and a designer is employed to fashion monograms for buyers. These monograms are inset in metal or jewels. The cheapest case is $400 and they range all the way up to $2,000. A charge of $100 is made for the monogram designing alone.

Paul Whiteman is said to have purchased the most expensive cigarette case in New York for a friend. It was woven of strands of gold and platinum with a filigreed and jeweled monogram and according to a rumor started set the orchestra leader back $2,500.

Newton D. Baker and Johns Hopkins.

The name of Newton D. Baker, we are told, is under consideration by the board for the vacant presidency of Johns Hopkins university. His name has been suggested to various boards for similar vacancies, but of course without any instigation from him.

Mr. Baker is an alumnus of Johns Hopkins, always active in his alma mater's service, and certainly among the most distinguished and useful men whom the Baltimore institution has given to the public and professional life of the nation. He has never lost the bent towards accurate learning, and conscientious use of that learning for the welfare of his fellow men, which Johns Hopkins aims to impart.

Nevertheless, we should be surprised if the trustees were to tender the presidency to him, and perhaps even more surprised if he were to accept such a tender. The educational institutions of the class to which Johns Hopkins belongs are not accustomed to go outside the educational field for their presidents, nor is it well that they should; and no one is likely to see more clearly than Mr. Baker the reasons why an experienced educator should be chosen.—Columbus Dispatch.

On the face of Stone Mountain the other day, a few miles from Atlanta, Georgia, the veil was ceremoniously drawn from the colossal figure of General Robert E. Lee, the first completed portion of the historic group planned to commemorate the heroic efforts of the armies which General Lee, led, and which he finally surrendered to General Grant at Appomattox Court House, 63 years ago.

There was a day when the creation of this memorial would have been severely censured by many, and would have caused serious apprehension in the minds of still greater numbers; but we have learned now that the South can be earnestly devoted to the Union again, and can still feel a deep attachment to their leaders of 1861-1865. At heart, such men as Robert E. Lee were earnest Americans, temporarily estranged by events for which their own generation was not personally responsible, and after the conflict was over they melted back into the mass of loyal American citizenship. The high personal qualities of such men as Lee are the possession of all America, and North and South will stand together at the foot of Stone Mountain and gaze with respect upon this dignified memorial.—Columbus Dispatch.

Once Overs

By J. J. Mundy.

It is a relief to converse with a person who possesses a pleasing voice, well-modulated, and at all times, not too loud.

The person with a musical speaking voice you judge to be charming. You think about your own coarse tones and wish you had a voice of softer quality.

Association has a great deal to do with the habit of speaking. If you mingle with educated, polite people, you can change your tones by listening for the sounds that please, and practicing the way these persons express themselves.

Imitation is stronger in youth than in later years. That is one reason why children should be brought up among persons who are careful of their manner of speech, if you want them to speak pleasantly.

Teachers can do a great deal for boys and girls who are deprived of this sort of association at home. Get the children to notice the tones of different ones and to try to speak in the manner that pleases them. Copyright, 1928, International Features Service.

MISS ELIZABETH M. O'HANLON IS BRIDE OF WILLIAM F. NOLL

Former East Liverpool Girl is Principal in Church Ceremony in Marietta.

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Mary O'Hanlon, formerly of East Liverpool, and William Francis Noll, of Zanesville, which was solemnized April 11 in St. Mary's Catholic church in Marietta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Herman.

A Halo of Loveliness

The most flattering frame for your face is your hair. It is up to you to bring out the healthy glint and the softness of your hair.

Keep your hair clean. Shampoo is once a week. That is necessary. But it must be more than clean. It must be radiant. That is what my Fruity Shampoo does for your hair.

It is the only shampoo that ever has satisfied me. I use it at least once a week and the thousands of people who see me on the stage know that my hair glows with a scintillating luster.

You can get my Fruity Shampoo at any toilet counter. The price is 60 cents.

The bride's gown was a creation of white satin embroidered in pearls and rhinestones. Her long wedding veil of Irish lace was worn cap fashion, caught with pearls, rhinestones and orange blossoms. Slippers and hose were of silver and she carried a magnificent bouquet of bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her maid of honor was gowned in pink georgette with large picture hat of matching color and she carried Aaron Ward roses and sweet peas.

The wedding music was in charge of Mrs. J. L. Reynolds, organist of the church, and Mrs. James Gorman and Miss Eleanor Hethel, vocalists. The music consisted of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Reynolds, and St. Aloysius Mass, sung by Mrs. Gorman and Miss Hethel.

Mrs. Gorman also sang the Ave Maria from St. Aloysius Mass.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Tea Room, the guests being relatives and members of the bridal party. Covers were placed for twenty.

During the morning, the bride and bridegroom departed for a motor trip in the east, after which they will make Zanesville their home. Mrs. Noll's traveling outfit was an ensemble of honey-beige with hat, shoes and other accessories smartly corresponding.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. O'Hanlon, 117 Maple street, a graduate of St. Mary's high school and of the nurses' training school at the Good Samaritan hospital. Since becoming a graduate nurse, Mrs. Noll has been practicing her profession in Zanesville and neighboring cities.

Mr. Noll is the son of Mrs. Matilda Noll, Hedgewood avenue, Zanesville.

He is a graduate of St. Nicholas' high school, is a member of the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, Zanesville Assembly No. 505, and belongs to Post No. 59 American Legion. He is assistant sales manager and cashier of the American Light company.

Bridge Party at Country Club.

Five tables of bridge were in play yesterday afternoon when the ladies of the East Liverpool Country club were entertained. Mrs. R. L. Cawood, hostess, served tea during the playing. Mrs. Martin Abbott of Wellsville received the trophy for the highest score.

Mrs. Alice Harvey of Canton was an out-of-town guest.

Honor Mrs. Fred Blower.

Celebrating her birthday anniversary, Mrs. Fred Blower entertained a group of friends last evening in her home in Church alley, with a 6 o'clock dinner. The table was decorated with spring flowers and a birthday cake. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Theo Powell.

The social hours were spent with 500, two tables being in play. Trophies were awarded Mesdames Gail McFarland and C. O. Ball. Raymond Miller Jr. demonstrated the Charleston.

Mrs. Hattie McElroy and Mrs. E. P. Brown of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Morgan and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Akron, were out-of-town guests.

Hostess to Sorosis Club.

"A Character in Modern Fiction That Has Impressed Me," was the response to roll call for members of the Sorosis club, when they met Tuesday evening with Miss Ocalalia Boden in East Third street. Mrs. Harvey Price discussed the "Novel From 1890," and Miss Lydian Bennett, "The Brookfield Saga."

The following committees were appointed for next year: Executive, Misses Irene Firth, Mary Scott, Helen Lewis and Rachel Baxter; music, Misses Lydian Bennett, Lillian Bradford and Maud Stewart; flowers, Misses Ruth Baxter and Harriet Miller; press, Misses Emma McDonald and Mary Whitehill.

A feature of the social hours was a millinery contest, in which eleven members made spring hats. The prettiest was awarded to Mrs. Harvey Price, the most becoming to Miss Mary Scott, and the least attractive, to Miss Rachel Baxter.

A butterfly luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Daisy and Pearl Shenkle, who were special guests. Calendars and butterflies were used in the appointments.

The May party will be held in the home of Miss Helen Lewis in Carolina avenue, Chester, the date to be announced later.

Just see — whiter with this safe hard-water soap

I WOULDN'T believe it, if I didn't see it with my own eyes. Such snowy, gleaming whiteness—without scrubbing or boiling!

The secret must be in the suds. I could tell Rinso suds were different right away. Our water here is very hard, but Rinso made it soft as rain. And how its creamy suds last!

It's just marvelous the way these rich suds wash out the dirt and stains. I never saw clothes come so wonderfully white from the washer. Why, I don't even bother about boiling any more.

Now I can see why demonstrators of washing machines everywhere use this famous granulated hard-water soap—and why the makers of 32 leading washers endorse it. Many of my neighbors use Rinso for tub washing too, because it soaks out the dirt and saves scrubbing. It's so easy on the hands!

Piano duet—Cecil Boyd and Delbert McLane.

Vocal duet—Miss Dora Saynor and Miss Muriel Bennett.

Vocal solo—George Woessner, accompanied by Mrs. Woessner.

Refreshments were served by the men of the organization. One hundred and fifty guests were present.

Mrs. John Wood Surprised.

Friendship class of the Pleasant Heights mission and friends delightedly surprised Mrs. John Wood in the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Hall, Wyoming avenue, Pleasant Heights, Monday evening, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The honor guest was presented with a scarf, the presentation speech being made by Mrs. Mentor Shenkle.

Mrs. Elwyn Shenkle rendered a vocal solo, and she and Mrs. Frank Shone gave a vocal duet. Games were also a diversion. The class song, "Help Somebody Today," was given by the assembly.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Hall, assisted by Mesdames James Hall, Harold Allison and Mentor Shenkle. Places were arranged for 35 guests.

Midland Church Has Three Vocal Groups

Presbyterians Proud of Male Quartet, Young People's Choir and Junior Chorus.

MIDLAND, Pa., April 19.—Midland Presbyterian church believes it has one of the most unusual musical organizations for a church of its size in the valley, with its three groups of volunteer singers.

Male quartet under the direction of Mrs. R. M. Keeney, which has sung at the evening services for more than two years, is composed of R. Allan Strayer, first tenor; Robert C. Schmetz, second tenor; F. M. Hamsher, first bass, and Fred High, second bass.

Young People's choir was organized more than two years ago among a group of junior high pupils in the congregation. The choir has grown to 30 well balanced voices and several soloists.

The newest addition to the church's musical groups is the junior choir composed of 20 voices chosen from the Junior Christian Endeavor society membership.

All three organizations are volunteer yet seldom miss a rehearsal or appearance every Sunday.

Mrs. Lester E. Stewart, who plays the organ at the church's three services every Sunday, set a record for herself when on Easter Sunday, she rendered 35 musical selections besides playing for two choir rehearsals during intermissions in the services.

LINCOLN HIGH PUPILS PLANT ON ARBOR DAY

Two American Elms Placed in School Yard.

MEMORIAL GIFTS

Students Sing as Special Program is Given.

MIDLAND, Pa., April 19.—With impressive ceremonies, pupils of Lincoln high school yesterday planted two American elm trees on the school lawn in observance of Arbor day. Trees were memorial gifts to the school from seniors who graduated last January and those who will be graduates in May.

While 250 pupils, lining the front walks of the school forming a hollow square, sang a special Arbor day song, three representatives of each of the two senior classes threw dirt into the hollow around the roots of the new trees. Harold B. Sapp, William Low and John Graham represented the present senior A class, while Simon Gottlieb, Joseph Hedish and Gayle Chaffin handled the spade for the class of last January. Paul Samuels played a trumpet accompaniment, while the students sang Arbor day songs and their alma mater air.

Rade Sadler and Nick Koss voiced pleas for the preservation of trees during the planting ceremony.

Motion picture, "Trees of Tomorrow," showing the value of forests and the danger of forest fires, was given in the auditorium.

BOY IS UNHURT IN AUTO CRASH

MIDLAND, Pa., April 19.—William Moll, son of H. R. Moll, 981 Ohio avenue, Lincoln high school pupil, escaped injury when his small coupe figured in a collision with a car driven by D. M. Derringer, 1507 Globe street, East Liverpool, O., at the intersection of Ninth street and Midland avenue, Tuesday evening. Both cars were damaged in the crash.

GIRL RUNDOWN BY AUTOMOBILE

ROCHESTER, Pa., April 19.—Marguerite Nardi, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nardi, South Heights, who suffered head lacerations and three broken ribs when struck by an automobile, is expected to recover at Rochester General hospital, where she was removed after the accident.

INSPECT FIVE INCINERATORS

Midland Solons to Visit Cities in Valley.

MIDLAND, Pa., April 19.—Sanitation committee of the Steel City borough council will make an inspection tour of valley garbage plants next Tuesday as a preface to awarding contracts for construction of the Midland new incinerator. Solons authorized the tour at an adjourned session last night.

Daniel Daugherty heads the committee. O. L. Pringle and W. E. Burlingame are members. Places to be visited are Ambridge, Aliquippa, McKees Rocks, Sewickley and East Liverpool.

Authorization of advertising for bids for construction of a sanitary sewer in Beaver avenue between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets to serve the new addition recently opened by the Midland Improvement company was also granted by solons.

Short Talks by Thoughtful Mothers.
Says a Virginia Mother: "Use a cough medicine that contains 'dope'! Oh, never. To our children we give Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, as my own dear mother used to give it to me. It so quickly relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping coughs and those disturbing night coughs." Heartily endorsed by Mothers everywhere. No opiates, no chloroform, contents plainly marked on package. Once tried, always used. Ask for it. Carahan's 3 Drug Stores.

Thin Folks! Here's 5 Pounds of Solid Flesh or Money Back

Underweight means your vitality is under par, your strength and energy below normal, so no wonder if you are thin, scrawny with sunken cheeks and hollows in your cheeks you always feel down in the mouth, discouraged and rundown in health.

There isn't an underweight man or woman on earth who wouldn't feel better if their weight was what it should be.

That's why every man and woman whose bones are scantily covered and who want to gain in health and have an attractive figure should take advantage of McCoy's offer.

McCoy takes all the risk—Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health—your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price.

The name McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets has been shortened—just ask for McCoy's Tablets at any drug store in America.

You cannot be attractive without a clear skin

EVERYBODY wants to be attractive. It is a great and just ambition. But no one can be attractive without a clear skin—you know that.

Do you realize the importance of pure, rich blood in preserving the health, and that the source of most skin disorders is in the blood?

Remove the cause, which is not in the skin itself, and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

S.S.S. is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs, and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

Mrs. R. A. Douglass, Banker's Wife, Dies

Funeral Services Will be Held in Louisiana Avenue Home at 2 O'clock Tomorrow Afternoon.

Mrs. Mabel Louise Douglass, 35, wife of Robert A. Douglass, cashier of the First National bank of Chester, died early today in the East Liverpool City hospital after a few days' illness following an operation.

Mrs. Douglass was born in Chicago, Ill., July 7, 1892, a daughter of Fred and Eleanor Griffith, the family moving later to Pittsburgh. She graduated from the Pittsburgh high school and Slippery Rock Normal school. Prior to her marriage on June 6, 1919, she taught school at Homestead, Pa. She had been a resident of Chester since 1925.

She was a member of the Chester Methodist Episcopal church and the Pittsburgh Eastern Star chapter.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Jane 7, and Ann, 5; her father, Fred Griffith, Pittsburgh, and two sisters, Mrs. Nellie Bargasser and Mrs. J. C. Allison, both of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the home, 600 Louisiana avenue, in charge of Rev. R. C. Ehrhart, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The body will be taken to the home of her father, Forbes street, Pittsburgh, where services will be held Saturday afternoon. Burial will be made in South Side cemetery, Pittsburgh.

Friends may view the body tonight.

FAMED MUSICIAN SECRETLY WED

Although they have been married for several years, Josef Hofmann (inset), famous pianist, and his second bride, Betty Short (right), guarded the secret until recently. The musician's divorce from the first Mrs. Hofmann became known at the same time. Both affairs were shrouded in secrecy to avoid casting a cloud over the debut of Josefa, Hofmann's daughter by his first marriage. have you "YELLOW MASK?"

Look at Your Teeth. Do They Have a Yellowish Hue? Then Here's the Way to Sparkling Whiteness... Guaranteed!

That unbecoming yellowish tinge is not in the tooth enamel but in a thin, glassy mask that a "liquid cement" in your saliva has formed over the enamel.

So what dental science has done is to perfect a means of removing that unsightly "Yellow Mask" without harm to the softest enamel. There is a basic substance that does this to perfection. It is known as "Tri-Calcium Phosphate." The leading dentists use it for cleaning and polishing teeth.

But the chief aim of science has been to give you the marvelous benefits of this wonderful "Tri-Calcium Phosphate" for daily use. In a pleasant, tasty tooth paste. So that you could first remove that repellent "Yellow Mask" and secondly, have dazzling white teeth forever.

It's been a big job! The most noted scientists have worked on it. But now success has come.

The name of this magic dentifrice is ORPHOS TOOTH PASTE. Dentists everywhere hail it. Prima donnas of the movie screen, opera and stage are using it. In less than six months more than a million women and men have abandoned old-styled dentifrices for ORPHOS and testify to teeth whiter and lovelier than ever before.

We want you to try this marvelous ORPHOS at once. Get a tube from your druggist. Give it a friendly trial, expecting amazing improvement in the whiteness of your teeth. Look solely for new teeth beauty. Expect no sidishow of foam and lather—just increasing whiteness. If you don't get a real thrill of delight, take the unused portion of the tube back and get the full purchase price. Now don't keep beauty waiting—act!

ADMISSION 50c

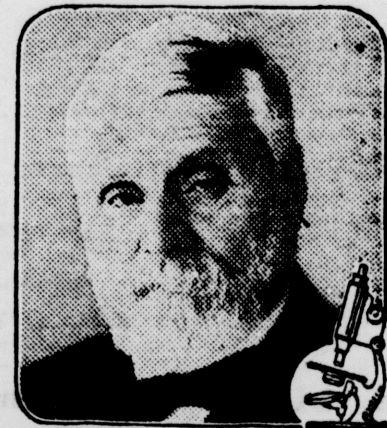

Prescription He Wrote in 1892 is the World's Most Popular Laxative

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as they are today. People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine. But even that early there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings to put into their system. So he wrote a prescription for a laxative to be used by his patients.

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

Under successful management this prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that millions of bottles are used a year proves that it has won the confidence of people who needed it to get relief from headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

J. B. Caldwell M.D.
AT AGE 83

It is particularly pleasing to know that the most of it is bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for elderly people. All drug stores have the generous bottles.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

FORD PLANE CARRIES PARTS, GAS TO BREMEN

Huge Tri-motored Craft to Leave Detroit.

BENNET ON JOB
Byrd's Pal Will Hop for Greenley Island.

NEW YORK, April 19.—A huge tri-motored Ford monoplane, capable of carrying in one trip all the replacement parts and fuel needed to start the Bremen on its way to Mitchell field, will get away from Detroit this afternoon, enroute to Greenley Island.

This announcement was made here today by the Junkers offices in New York, who said they had received that information from Detroit. Floyd Bennett, who flew to the pole with Commander Byrd, and Bernt Balchen, trans-Atlantic flier, will be at the controls of the big monoplane.

New Propeller on Way.
MONTREAL, Quebec, April 19.—J. Adolph Scherer, engineer of the Junkers company, arrived here this morning with a new propeller for the trans-Atlantic plane Bremen. He left immediately afterward for Murray Bay. If weather conditions permit he may hop off for Greenley Island this afternoon.

QUEBEC, Quebec, April 19.—Spare parts for the repair of the trans-Atlantic plane Bremen passed through Quebec today enroute from Montreal to Murray Bay. Major James E. Fitzmaurice is awaiting the parts at the Murray Bay air depot and is expected to hop off with them for Greenley Island as soon as they arrive.

Local experts believe it will be 10 days before the Bremen can leave Greenley Island for New York.

Fitz Denies Rumors.
NEW YORK, April 19.—An impression that has been current in Canada and the United States that Major James E. Fitzmaurice "deserted" his German flying companions on Greenley Island is denied in a message from the Irish aviator made public here today.

Fitzmaurice said he wished to correct the report that he had fled from New York. He said he merely left Greenley Island to obtain spare parts for the repair of the Bremen. According to the message, which was received here by Grover Whalen, chairman of the mayor's welcoming committee, Fitzmaurice will fly back to Greenley Island with a new propeller and landing gear. After repairs are completed upon the Bremen the three air men will take off for this city.

Terrible Flying Conditions.
LAKE ST. AGNES, Que., April 19.—"In all my experience I have never encountered such terrible flying conditions as exist off the coast of Newfoundland."

With this comment Major James E. Fitzmaurice expressed the opinion that he thought it quite possible that Captain Walter Hinchcliffe and the Hon. Elsie Mackay, who never were heard from after their attempt to span the Atlantic ocean in a westward flight, might have been forced to land somewhere off the bleak coast of Labrador.

"Our own flight shows the difficulty of navigating a true course in the face of fog and strong headwinds which prevail off the American continent," the Irish flier declared.

"Just as the Bremen was swept far north of its course, so might the ship of Hinchcliffe and Miss Mackay have been swept far from its route. If this conjecture is correct, the English fliers were not as fortunate as we were in landing on an inhabited spot, close to communication lines."

Tells of Bremen Flight.
Major Fitzmaurice said that the Bremen made fine progress for eight hours. At sunset, the ship ran into headwinds of high velocity. The progress of the ship was impeded but the fliers were not alarmed. They had expected to encounter headwinds.

Through the night the gales continued. But the motor purred on reassuringly. Not once during the entire flight did it falter, the Irish flier said.

Then something happened to the lighting system of the plane. Captain Koehl was at the controls at the time. His companions used pocket flashlights to help him in his gallant attempt to keep the Bremen on her course.

BREMEN RESCUE DEVELOPMENTS

Captain Hermann Koehl, pilot of the Bremen, and Baron Ehrenfried Von Huenefeld, were still on the ice-bound Greenley Island today but it appeared likely that they would start for civilization Monday.

Major James E. Fitzmaurice, who arrived at St. Agnes yesterday, after making the journey from the isolated island where the Bremen was forced to land, in two hops in "Duke" Schiller's plane, expects to fly back to his comrades tomorrow with repair parts and fuel.

A propeller to replace the one which was smashed when the Bremen landed was taken off the F-13, sister ship of the trans-Atlantic monoplane, and is now enroute to Murray Bay, where Fitzmaurice will take it to Greenley Island.

Highly volatized fuel is being shipped from Montreal to Murray Bay for the use of the Bremen. Fitzmaurice believes repairs on the Bremen should not take longer than two days.

A second plane of the Canadian Trans-Continental Airways company, piloted by A. Vachon and carrying newspapermen and photographers, has reached Greenley Island, company officials say. It is not believed the German fliers will avail themselves of its use to get back to civilization. They are determined to fly the Bremen to Mitchell Field.

Rev. Frank Randall Is Named Moderator

Dennison Pastor Honored at Spring Meeting of Steubenville Presbytery of Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Frank Randall of Dennison was named moderator and Rev. Edgar A. Walker, pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian church, East Liverpool, temporary clerk, at the spring meeting of the Steubenville presbytery of the Presbyterian church which closed yesterday at Smithfield.

Rev. K. J. Stewart, pastor of the Yellow Creek Presbyterian church, north of Wellsview, was re-elected a member of the committee on vacancy and supply and made chairman.

Forty-two pastors and 44 elders, representing the 60 churches of the presbytery, attended the meeting. Rev. Randall, new moderator, succeeds Elder J. H. Mosel of Steubenville.

Rev. Hal King was dismissed by letter to enter the Wooster presbytery. Rev. Milton G. Hanna, D. D., of New Philadelphia, resigned to enter the Mahoning presbytery and will take charge of the Niles church.

Rev. Boyd J. York of Carrollton will succeed Rev. Hanna as treasurer of the presbytery and Rev. M. H. Wolfe of Minerva will take Rev. Hanna's place as chairman of the committee on Christian education.

By a majority vote the presbytery decided to refuse to install the pastor over any church not co-operating in the new pension plan.

J. H. Mosel, retiring moderator, delivered an address on the subject, "Religion in Business and Business in Religion." Sermon was given by Rev. Stewart Hutchinson, D. D., of the Pittsburgh presbytery, at the opening session.

Rev. Thomas W. Pearson of Hope-land, Rev. W. G. Regemier of Mingo, Elders C. F. Bough of Madison and P. M. Mentore of Smithfield were named commissioners to the general assembly to be held in Tulsa, Okla., May 24.

At the closing meeting of the presbytery, Henry Reichel of Youngstown gave a talk on "Personal Evangelism." Efforts will be made to reach the entire presbytery by evangelistic activities during the coming fall and winter.

KIWANIS PLANS ANNUAL OUTING
District Picnic to be Held at Rock Springs.

A district picnic of the 12 or more Kiwanis clubs in the Eighth Ohio district will be held at Rock Springs Park this summer if the proposal of Lieutenant-Governor Ira Mellinger, Leetonia, submitted to the local club at today's noon luncheon in the Travelers' Hotel grill is approved.

Communication from Mellinger was referred to R. J. McElravy, chairman of the inter-city relations committee. Resolutions of respect for Joshua Poole, who died about three weeks ago, submitted by W. B. Hill, C. C. Ashbaugh and R. C. Hedderston, were adopted.

Plans for the tri-city meeting at Sallineville next Tuesday night when members of the East Liverpool and Leetonia clubs will be guests were also discussed. The East Liverpool contingent will present part of the program.

City Health Commissioner Edward Miskall was introduced as a new member.

CARL O. KOHL, HELD IN FARM TRAGEDY, SAID TO BE INSANE

Alleged E. Rochester Slayer May Face Mental Test.

ADMITS SHOOTING
Jail Physician Reports Prisoner is Not Normal.

A sanity commission probably will be called upon to examine Carl O. Kohl, 19-year-old Hanover township lad, who is being held in the county jail at Lisbon today in the murder of Daniel Ruff, 78, a neighbor, in the Ruff home, one and one-half miles north of East Rochester, Tuesday night.

Coroner J. M. Van Poyssan, East Palestine, yesterday rendered a verdict of "homicide" in Ruff's death, naming young Kohl as his slayer.

Dr. Seward Harris, Lisbon, who talked to Kohl yesterday expressed the opinion that the youth was insane.

Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes and his assistant, John Hunkeler, and Sheriff Wright are making a thorough investigation of the case.

Rudolph Kohl, father of the prisoner, visited the county jail yesterday and told county authorities that the boy was feeble-minded. The boy is said to have spent considerable time in prayer at the county jail Wednesday.

Kohl is alleged to have gone to Ruff's home, picked up Ruff's shotgun and fired a charge into the aged man's head.

TRUCE CALLED BY BOY 'GANGS'
Lad, 12, is Shot in Fighting at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, April 19.—A truce was called today between two alleged rival schoolboy "gangs" here following a fight late yesterday when Alex Kuchnicki, 12, was shot and seriously wounded with a rifle, according to police.

A 15-year-old youth is being held by authorities in connection with the shooting.

The fighting between the two "gangs" for the supremacy of a certain district here has occurred daily for two weeks, authorities declared.

CHINESE RULE IN SHANGHAI
WASHINGTON, April 19.—Chinese were admitted today to the governing power in Shanghai, the great metropolis of the Orient, for the first time since the treaty powers set up the international settlement there 75 years ago.

Details of the new arrangements were communicated to the state department by Consul General Cunningham at Shanghai.

Under a formula approved by Great Britain, Japan and the United States, the foreign settlement has granted representation to Chinese on the Shanghai municipal council, whose jurisdiction includes virtually the entire business and residential areas of the city comprising 800,000 native and 30,000 foreign population.

TWO-DAY COLD WAVE FORECAST

COLUMBUS, O., April 19.—A 20-degree drop in temperature late tonight, which will bring the mercury down to freezing, is forecast for Ohio by U. S. Weatherman Alexander here today.

Northwest winds are driving the cold which now hovers over Michigan and the upper Missouri valley over Ohio and West Virginia.

The cold is expected to prevail about two days with warmer weather Saturday.

NURSE FACES REFORMATORY
Kenmore Woman is Sentenced in Fatal Shooting.

AKRON, O., April 19.—Mrs. Margaret Coakley, 30, a Kenmore nurse, today faced a sentence of from one to twenty years in the state reformatory for women at Marysville for the fatal shooting of Charles Christoff, 32.

Mrs. Coakley was sentenced yesterday here by Judge E. D. Fritch after a jury, consisting of eight men and four women, who deliberated one hour, found the woman guilty of manslaughter.

Christoff was shot last month with a rifle, while visiting Mrs. Coakley, authorities said. Mrs. Coakley, according to police, said Christoff was an unwelcome visitor at her home and that she fired when he refused to leave.

Ask Willis Support

system. I believe in the supremacy of the Republican party. This supremacy can best be brought about in Ohio by the election of the so-called Willis delegates to the Republican national convention. In the beginning Frank B. Willis had no more than a remote hope that he would get the presidential nomination, but when Secretary Hoover did file, it was necessary for Mr. Willis to take his own candidacy seriously.

"If Senator Fess had been the senior senator the honor would have been given to him to lead the Ohio fight in the selection of delegates to the Republican convention. This honor was given to Senator Burton in 1916, and to Mr. Harding in 1920, and in former years to Major McKinley, Rutherford B. Hayes, William Howard Taft, Benjamin Harrison, James A. Garfield and Ulysses S. Grant.

"The Willis delegates and alternates were selected in the manner provided by law by the local Republican organization. How and by whom were the Hoover delegates selected? The self-appointed strategists, who are managing the Hoover campaign, for many years have attempted to gain control of the Republican party in Ohio, but the Republicans have steadfastly refused them this leadership.

"Will the voters of Ohio approve the selection of the Hoover delegates by these strategists over the long distance telephone from a hotel room in Columbus? Understand I am not complaining of the Hoover delegates themselves, but I do protest the manner of their selection.

"It is well to look further ahead than the Presidential primaries. It is highly important that Ohio shall be Republican in national elections. It is also important that Ohio shall be Republican in state elections. Can Ohio continue to be Republican in national affairs and Democratic in state affairs? Is there not a danger that the state shall become Democratic in national affairs if we continue electing a Democratic governor as has occurred too often in the last 25 years? I want a Republican governor—so do you.

"Ohio can be redeemed by the Republicans of Ohio maintaining and supporting the Republican party through its lawfully elected and appointed officers and committees. I have no personal quarrel with Walter F. Brown and Thad H. Brown. But the Republican party will not be strengthened by permitting these two strategists to personally select delegates to the Republican national convention independently of the local party organization and committees.

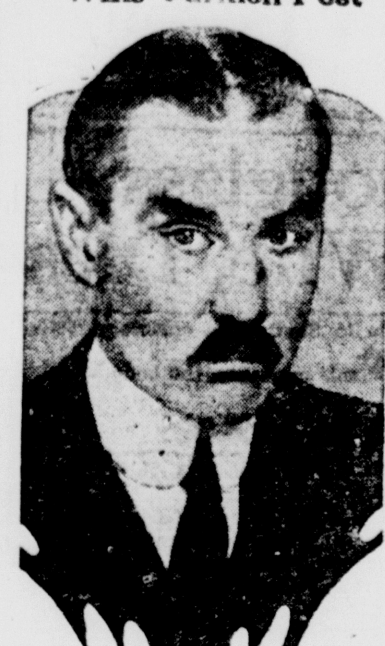

The battle in Ohio is not so much between presidential candidates. The real issue is: "Shall the Browns rule?"

"Calvin Coolidge has repeatedly claimed that he does not want the nomination, but I believe that in a crisis he will accept. Great men are not masters of their own destiny, and when the hour arrives, and duty bids them make any sacrifice, they never fail to obey that call. But in case it is impossible to draft Mr. Coolidge, Mr. Wickersham and I will use every honorable effort to bring about the nomination of that man who is best qualified for the presidency of the United States, whether it be Charles Evans Hughes, Frank O. Lowden, Charles G. Dawes, Senator Curtis, Secretary Hoover, or some Republican not yet considered, and the Republican party has a wealth of qualified material.

Free for Best Selection.
"The Willis delegates, if elected, will not be tied to any candidate. They will be free from any pledge, except to the Republican voters of Ohio. They will be as judges to help determine and nominate that Republican who will make the best president for all the people and who will be most certain of election in November.

"Mr. Wickersham and I are especially interested in the election of Mrs. Wilma Sinclair LeVan, of Steubenville, candidate for delegate-at-large. The Republican party has honored the Eighteenth district by the election of Mrs. LeVan as the national committee woman from Ohio. She has given largely of her time and energy during the last four years. The delegates to the National Convention will elect a national committee woman. If the Willis delegates secure a majority of the Ohio delegation, Mrs. LeVan will be re-elected national committee woman."

STARK COUNTY 'WORKS' INQUIRY IS UNDER WAY

Governor Sends Two State Agents to Canton.

PLAN ONCE-OVER
Charge Conditions at Institution are Unsanitary.

COLUMBUS, April 19.—Complying with instructions from Governor Vile Donahy, J. E. Bauman, assistant state health director, and S. C. Griffith, investigator, of the division of charities, state welfare department, were at Canton today conducting an investigation relative to charges that conditions at the Stark county workhouse were unsanitary and that prisoners were improperly treated.

The governor's office made public a letter to the governor from welfare director John Harper who stated that "our investigator reports that no other workhouse in Ohio is in such bad condition, from a moral and sanitary viewpoint, as the Stark county workhouse."

"An institution equipped to house less than 100 has a population of almost 400," Harper told Donahy. "Halls, chapel and basement are filled with beds. The hallways leading to the women's quarters are filled with beds of male prisoners. Ventilation is poor and fire hazards increased."

THREE HURT AS PLANE BURNS

Fire Follows Crash at Field in Youngstown.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 19.—Three men are in a hospital here today recovering from injuries suffered when an airplane in which they were flying crashed and was destroyed by fire.

Arthur Clarkson and Newton Bartram, passengers, and the pilot, W. A. Jones, who were severely burned, took off from Lansdowne field yesterday afternoon and were on their way to Cleveland to witness the opening American league baseball game when the accident occurred.

JUDGE ALLEN HITS VICE, WAR

LIMA, O., April 19.—Asserting that the home will never be safe until organized vice and crime "take their fingers off the throat of government" and until "the so-called Christian nations delegalize the institution of organized warfare," Justice Florence E. Allen, of the Ohio supreme court, addressed the state convention of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs here last night.

"Chicago shows how the home is threatened, when there is an alliance between government and the forces of the underworld. When the decent citizens permit the less desirable class of the community to control the organized forces of government they become so defiant that ordinary law-abiding people are not safe in their homes. Houses are bombed and innocent people are shot on their way to the polls. The machine-gun takes the place of the courts as the arbiter of the conditions that shall exist."

REDISCOUNT RATE MAY BE CHANGED

Washington, April 19.—Change in rediscount rates of regional banks are under consideration by the federal reserve board, it was learned today.

The question was discussed at a board meeting today which was attended by Secretary of Treasury Mellon as ex-officio chairman. Mellon was called to complete a quorum.

TOKIO TROOPS GO TO CHINA

TOKIO, April 19.—Apparently fearing that the warring Chinese factions will endanger Japanese interests in China, the Japanese cabinet today ordered the sixth army division, which totals 2,000 men, dispatched to Tsingtao immediately. Heavy fighting has been reported in the Tsingtao region.

THREE DIVORCE ACTIONS FILED

LISBON, April 19.—Bessie May Freeland, through her counsel, Charles Boyd has filed a petition for divorce in common pleas court against her husband Thaddeus F. Freeland, who is employed by Follansbee Bros., at Toronto. The couple were married July 20th, 1918.

The petition charges the defendant with gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. A decree, alimony and custody of children is sought by the plaintiff.

The same attorney filed a petition for divorce for Pearl E. Parsons against her husband, Idris T. Parsons, the latter residing at Bergholz in Jefferson county. They were married at New Cumberland, W. Va., May 9, 1918. Parsons is charged with habitual drunkenness and also extreme cruelty.

Through his counsel, G. Jay Clark of East Liverpool, Charles Barber has filed a petition for divorce against his wife who is accused of wilful absence for over a period of three years. They were married at Holliday's Cove, W. Va., December 1916.

$25,000 DAMAGE CASE SETTLED

LISBON, April 19.—In the case of Ida Fox against the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction Co., wherein the plaintiff sought $25,000 damages as a result of an accident a settlement between the parties has been made out of court.

George W. Knott who has a similar action pending against the defendant, has been granted leave to withdraw his answer and file a new petition.

Injunction Suit Filed.
LISBON, April 19.—An injunction is sought in a petition filed in common pleas court by Charles Herriott against Wesley Kelley against the defendant from delivering ice within a radius of 25 miles of East Palestine. The petition relates that because of agreements James P. Barco, Mark Dorra and Frank Caselo are now delivering ice within this boundary under another firm name and contrary to former agreements.

SPELLING BEE ON SATURDAY

Rural School Pupils
Will Compete at Lisbon.

LISBON, April 19.—The annual county spelling contest for the rural schools will be held in the David Anderson high school building at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

There are two classes, one composed of fifth and sixth grade pupils and the other of seventh and eighth grade pupils. These contestants have been chosen by contests in the local schools and then in each district.

The Pottery's National bank of East Liverpool has offered a prize of $5 in gold to the winner in the class composed of fifth and sixth grade pupils, and to the winner of the second place a prize of $2.50 in gold.

The First National bank of East Liverpool will make awards to the winners of first and second places in the class composed of seventh and eighth grade pupils. The first prize is $5 in gold and the second is $2.50.

Helen Evans Granted Divorce.
LISBON, April 19.—On the grounds of habitual drunkenness, Helen M. Evans has been granted a decree of divorce from her husband, William T. Evans. The defendant has been barred from all dower rights in the real estate mentioned in the petition, or any other property that might be in the possession of the plaintiff. Mrs. Evans has been restored to her maiden name, that of Helen M. Morgan.

Resatka Cited for Contempt.
LISBON, April 19.—Because he has failed to carry out a former alimony order placed on the record by Judge W. F. Lones, Joseph Resatka, who is being sued for divorce by his wife, Clara E. Resatka, has been cited into court April 27 to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt.

Getting Up Nights
For Bladder Relief, Is Nature's Danger Signal.

Columbus Minister's Wife Relates Experience.

Rev. W. H. Mitchell, 824 No. Park St., Columbus, Ohio, says in his own home paper the Columbus Dispatch: "My wife was troubled seriously with bladder irritation until we used Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula). She had to get up 6 to 8 times each night. Will gladly answer any letter."

Lithiated Buchu acts on the bladder as salts do on the bowels. Drives out foreign matter and decreases excessive acidity, thereby relieving irritation. The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at J. D. Holloway, Druggist.

Ohio's Opportunity

The next president of the United States will be nominated at the Kansas City Republican National Convention. Ohio has the opportunity of helping to nominate that candidate, if an uninstructed delegation is sent to the Convention.

The Willis delegates, if elected, will not be tied to any candidate. They will be an uninstructed delegation, free from any pledge except to the Republican voters of Ohio. They will be as judges to help determine and nominate that Republican who will make the best president for all the people and who will be most certain of election in November. The Willis delegates will have a wealth of qualified material from which to select that candidate, Calvin Coolidge, Charles Evan Hughes, Charles G. Dawes, Frank O. Lowden, Herbert Hoover, Charles Curtis, or some Republican not yet considered. The Hoover delegates are pledged to one candidate; and, that is their weakness. If the Willis delegates do not win, will Mrs. Wilma Sinclair LeVan be re-elected a national committeewoman?

WILMA SINCLAIR LeVAN, Delegate at Large,
LOUIS H. BRUSH, District Delegate,
HOWARD L. WICKERSHAM, District Delegate,
H. H. MURPHY, District Alternate,
GEORGE S. TINLIN, District Alternate.

ANNIE LAURIE'S TIMELY ADVICE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:
I am a girl of twenty years and very much in love with a young man just two years my senior. My friends tell me he cares a great deal for me. He himself has never directly declared this to me. What I cannot understand about him is that he asks me for dates and then makes no effort to keep them and offers no explanation as to why they are broken. I have quite a few other boy friends but cannot seem to interest myself in any one except him. Please advise me.

BLONDE GIRL.

BLONDE GIRL: This boy's lack of consideration for you would most certainly offset any declaration of love, my dear, and I am surprised that you tolerate such rudeness! I should think your pride would prevent you from granting this boy another date since he so consistently fails to keep his appointments with you. Surely you cannot hope to win his admiration or respect by being so tolerant of his carelessness and I urge you to adopt a more independent attitude. Refuse to make another date with him on the grounds that by his past performances you judge him to be too uninterested to really desire to see you. Continue your associations with other boys and you will in time become more interested in them. By all means stop pretending to yourself; realize that this boy's actions indicate indifference only and do not try to persuade yourself that he is in love with you.

A Simple Application That Dissolves Blackheads

No more squeezing and pinching to get rid of those ugly blackheads. Get a little Calotie powder from any drug store, sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth, rub over the blackheads, and in two minutes every blackhead will be dissolved away entirely.

FORCED TO SLEEP IN CHAIR—GAS SO BAD

"Nights I sat up in a chair, I had such stomach gas. I took Adlerika and nothing I eat hurts me now. I sleep fine."—Mrs. Glenn Butler.

Even the FIRST spoonful of Adlerika relieves gas on the stomach and removes astonishing amounts of old waste matter from the system. Makes you enjoy your meals and sleep better. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adlerika will surprise you. Carnahan Drug Co., and other druggists.

FINE FOR CHILDREN!

Give them a good start in life, with happy smiles and healthy little bodies. Children need a mild corrective occasionally to regulate stomach and bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a safe vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They tone up and regulate the eliminative tract. Not a nasty cathartic or a habit-forming medicine, but a safe pleasant remedy for constipation, sour stomach, torpid liver, bad breath, and similar disorders. Dr. Edwards, a widely known family physician of Ohio, prescribed these tablets for many years in his own practice. Children from six years up are greatly helped by them and like to take them. Recognized by their olive color, Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets overcome those irritable spells that many children are subject to, keep their bodies in active healthy condition, skin clear and eyes bright with the light of perfect health. 15c, 30c and 60c sizes.

Old Folks Can Feel Younger Now

It's The Little Daily Dose That Does It.

You can't stop the flight of time, that's sure. But what's the difference if your hair is gray and a few more wrinkles and birthdays added to your collection. The only question that matters is "How old do you feel?" and the answer to this is to be found in the condition of your "inner works." Keep them working smoothly and your blood pure and vigorous and you'll always feel young. The best way to do this is to adopt the Kruschen habit.
The little daily dose of Kruschen Salts acts as a mild tonic on the kidneys, liver and bowels and brings about a healthy, thorough performance that drives all impurities from the system.
This means that your blood stream is full of pure blood that is carried to every part of the body creating new vigor.
Don't envy those hale, hearty, always cheery folks who are carrying youthful health into old age—be one of them. Follow the Kruschen habit religiously every morning—2 tablets of Kruschen Salts in your morning cup of coffee.

2,000 High School And College Athletes Compete In Relays

Ohio State Contests Draw Record Entries

Dan Kinsey, Phin Guthrie, Brickman and Werner in Special Hurdle Events; Conger-Martin Race Friday.

COLUMBUS, O., April 19.—Nearly 2,000 athletes representing high schools and colleges of a dozen states, are expected to be entered in events of the Fifth Annual Ohio Relays which will get under way at the Ohio State university stadium tomorrow and Saturday.

Entries of Ohio colleges and secondary schools are anticipated by George Trautman, director of the annual relays to top all previous number on record taking part in the spring Buckeye program, sponsored yearly by Ohio State university.

The entrance of three Ohio colleges, St. Xavier of Cincinnati, Oberlin college of Oberlin and Ohio Wesleyan university of Delaware and two high schools, West Commerce of Cleveland, and Shaker Heights of Cleveland were recorded as the first entries of the Buckeye state the latter part of last week.

Ohio Wesleyan track squad which met defeat at the hands of Ohio State in the opening meet of the season last Saturday, has 34 men entered to take part in the individual and relay events of the university section. Oberlin has entered 10 men; St. Xavier four athletes; Shaker Heights, two men in the 100-yard dash event and others in the shot put and 120-yard hurdles. One man to take part in the high jump event will be the only representative of Cleveland West Commerce High.

By a new plan this year, a majority of the high school events will be completed on the first day of the meet instead of holding the final races over until Saturday as was the custom in former years. These events will include: Shot put, pole vault, high jump, the class "B" high school half-mile relay and the elementary school 400-yard relay.

With a huge entry list for 36 events, other high school preliminary events will be run Friday afternoon and the college preliminary events Saturday morning. The finals of the high school low hurdles, 100-yard dash and half-mile relay will be held along with the finals of the college and university events Saturday afternoon.

Special events on the program included two hurdle races in which Dan Kinsey, 1924 Olympic champion; "Phin" Guthrie, former Ohio State star; Charlie Brickman, ex-Chicago captain, and "Chick" Warner, ex-Illinois captain, will participate. Ray Conger, world's record holder for the 1,000-yard run indoor and Olympic prospect, will race Friday against Orval Martin, of Purdue, holder of the Western Conference indoor half-mile record.

To speed up track events and offer a wider variety for spectators, finishes will be alternated between the east and west sides of the stadium. Major John L. Griffith, commissioner of the Western Conference, will referee the meet and Harry Swain, of Columbus, will act as starter. Ohio State's coaching and managerial staff has been assigned to administrative duties in connection with the relay carnival.

Friday's events will start at 2 p. m. The Saturday morning preliminaries are scheduled for 10 a. m., while the final events will get under way at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

High School Entries.
Marietta, Monroe high of Pittsburg, O.; Kenton, Grandview of Columbus; Lincoln of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Family high of Columbus; Liberty Union of Basil, West high of Akron; Lancaster, Ashley, Mt. Sterling, Oakwood high of Dayton; Piana University School of Cleveland; Westerville, Troy, South high of Lima; Columbiana, St. Chas. high of Massillon; Frankfort, Portsmouth, Zanesville, Central high of Columbus; Stivers high of Dayton; Carey, Chatfield, West Alexander, Ravenna, Garfield high of Akron; Greenville, Prospect, East high of Columbus; Bucks high of South Salem; Blume high of Wapakoneta; Berrea, Libby high of Toledo; Shaw high of East Cleveland; Roosevelt of Dayton; McKinley of Canton; Acropolis high of Columbus; Scott high of Toledo; Logan, New Holland, Lakewood, Danville, Alliance, Fairmont high of Dayton; Marysville, Harvester.

Entries of several junior high and elementary school of the state have been received at the headquarters for the Ohio relays this week, including eight Columbus schools, Liberty Union of Basil; Lancaster, Ashley, and West Junior high of Huntington, W. Va.

Friday's events will start at 2 p. m. Preliminaries in a majority of the college and university events will be run off starting at 9 o'clock Saturday with the finals scheduled to begin at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Ty Clouts Apple at .412 Clip

Speaker Struggling to Rise Above .111 Mark.

By Davis J. Walsh.
NEW YORK, April 19.—Executing the standing-sitting-stance dive into the field of statistics from a very difficult angle, the writer discovered today that, up to and including the moment, Tris Speaker has been paying off his $50,000 investment to Connie Mack in Pennings, which I understand to be the Australian word for nothing or somewhat less. It was pleasing to note that Tris blew himself to a base hit against Washington yesterday since, otherwise, he would be hitting a slug fitting six and seven-eighths. If you insist upon being unpleasant about it, the unofficial figure is .111. It was only a week ago that Speaker would be a big help to the Athletics this season.

Meantime, Ty Cobb, the other $50,000 investment in Philadelphia has found it almost impossible to average more than two hits a game. He was hitting a mere .412 in the unofficial lists today. It was only a week ago that the intelligencia delivered itself of the dictum that the society for the prevention of cruelty to spectators ought to have Ty abated as a public nuisance or something.

Anyway, most of the prize exhibits have had their averages in there playing tag with Speaker's not Cobb's. In fact, only three of them, exclusive of Ty, are hitting above .300 today. They are Paul Waner, who is clocked in .350; Rogers Hornsby, who barely managed to rise above the dead line by getting two hits yesterday; and Lou Gehrig, who is running wild after a base hit famine in the south. His average today, .471, tops the field.

Harry Heilmann, 1927 batting champion in the American League, is struggling along at .233. Bob Fothergill, third in the same contest was obliging with a natty .190 when they lifted him tenderly out of the Detroit line-up several days ago. The best his temporary successor, Easterling, has been able to do is six hits out of his first eight times up. And what of George Ruth, alias Herman, the boy friend himself? Well, George or Herman or both is neither depressing nor exhilarating his dear public. His average today is .286 and not a home run to date.

Going To France.

TOLEDO, O.—Valentino Capovilla, the Italian reinsman who races his horses in France, stopped off here and purchased the four-year-old trotting filly, Nantucket (3) 2:08, from Dr. Roy E. Davis, Toledo, fancier. She will be shipped across the pond along with several other performers Capovilla has bought.

KENT MCCONNELL, star outguard-ener for the Chester champions of the City Industrial league last season, will "double in baseball" during the coming campaign.

McConnell is slated to perform in the Midland Crucible Steel circuit and will also hold down his customary job with Frank Riley's club. Although there may be a conflict in dates now and then, McConnell will not often be found out of the West Virginians' line-up.

PAUL BENNETT of Chester, student at Wabash college, Crawfordsville, Ind., is flashing plenty of form on the mound this spring for the Hoosier diamond squad.

Bennett, who probably will be a member of the Wellsville City Industrial league club this season, after he leaves school, has turned in several noteworthy games since the Wabash nine began its schedule, including a relief performance against Rose Poly recently.

One of Bennett's staff mates, Fiesler, started and managed to hold things to a 5-5 tie until the sixth when he was derailed. Bennett took up the burden at that point and held the Rose nine scoreless thereafter while his mates managed to squeeze in the winning counter. Six opposition swatters fanned Bennett's pitching in the last three frames.

O'Doul Gotham Idol as He Smacks Two Homers

Brooklyn Swamps Braves; Webb Hits Third Circuit Drive But Cubs Lose to Reds; Tribe Wins Home Inaugural.

By Les Conklin.
NEW YORK, April 19.—Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, who wasn't good enough to make the grade with the New York Yankees several years ago, is now a leading gate attraction in the camp of their rivals, the New York Giants. The California Irishman is the new idol of Gotham fans today as the result of his feat in hitting two mighty home runs yesterday, which gave the Giants a 5 to 1 victory over the Phillies.

O'Doul, like Babe Ruth, was converted from a pitcher into an outfielder because of his hitting. Six Boston errors and effective pitching by Dazzy Vance enabled Brooklyn to swamp the Braves, 10 to 5, and jump to second place. The Cubs lost their first home game to Cincinnati, 3 to 6. A home run by Pinch Hitter Webb, his third of the season, enabled Chicago to overcome a four-run lead, but the Reds won in the ninth on George Kelly's double with two on.

Larkins Injured On Grid

Prospective O. S. U. Center Fractures Ankle.

RICHARD "DICK" LARKINS, prospective varsity football center at Ohio State University, is lost to the squad for the remainder of the spring training season as a result of a broken ankle sustained Tuesday afternoon in scrimmage. Daily Larkins, Dick's father, was informed of the latter's misfortune in a letter he received yesterday afternoon in which Dick intimated that he would probably be hobbling around on crutches for the rest of the semester. What effect, if any, the injury will have on Larkins' varsity chances next fall is questionable, depending undoubtedly on the extent of the fracture and the time required to bring about a complete recovery.

Blindfolded . . . in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, W. T. Benda selects Old Gold

W. T. Benda, in his studio, while test was being made. In background may be seen some of the famous Benda masks.

W. T. BENDA
Eminent illustrator and creator of the Benda masks.

Only the heart-lungs of the tobacco plant are good enough for Old Gold. That's why you can pick them in the dark.

"I have been an inveterate cigarette smoker for years and my interest in cigarettes not only induced me to make this blindfold test, but to make it three times in succession.

"Each time I selected the same cigarette—OLD GOLD.

"However, there was no other choice that I could honestly make. OLD GOLD was so superior and its delicacy of aroma, its rich, full flavor so entirely free from any hint of sting or burn that it immediately appealed to my taste.

"Since the test I have been smoking OLD GOLDS steadily and I find that they are the most satisfying cigarettes I have ever smoked."

W. T. Benda

How Test Was Made

Mr. Benda was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette. Mr. Benda was unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the four cigarettes, he was asked to designate by number his choice. He replied, "Number 4," which was OLD GOLD.

CHAPTER 39.

"I do not remember the name given to it by the man who sold it to Java Dick," Tao Lin replied. "But there is a wheel that spins with a little ball, and there are many numbers, and—"

"You don't mean roulette, do you?"

"Yes," said Tao Lin. "That is the name."

Bob Kingsley chuckled—and hic-coughed.

"That's not new!" he stated derisively. "It's as old as—"

"It is new here," said Tao Lin. "Few of those who come here had ever seen it before; and now many play it."

He jerked his head in the direction of a door at Bob Kingsley's left. "It is in the big room. Many are there now. If the game is known to you, so much more reason that you should play while you wait for Java Dick."

"I'll take a—hic!—shot at it," announced Bob Kingsley, as though he had arrived at a weighty decision. "But you tell Java Dick I got to see him—hic!—minute he comes in. Eh?"

"Yes," said Tao Lin. "I'll tell him."

Bob Kingsley started across the room—but he made progress now with exceeding instability. Tao Lin put down the iron, and ran to his assistance.

"Thash all right!" said Bob Kingsley with dignity. "Quite all right!"

And then inwardly Bob Kingsley grinned. Tao Lin evidently did not think so, for it was Tao Lin who helpfully opened the door to the "big room"; and here, thanks to Tao Lin's misgivings, Bob Kingsley found himself delivered over to the solicitous escort of a dirty and squalid-looking attendant in the shape of a young Chinaman.

Bob Kingsley stumbled forward on the young Chinaman's arm. The room, he knew, was but one of several that flanked each side of Tao Lin's "reception" room, and, devoted to Java Dick's various and nefarious enterprises, of which an extensive opium den was not the least, occupied the rear of the three or four buildings that were protected by the barrage of business signs on the public thoroughfare. Nor was the room itself new to him. The only change he noted was the installation of a somewhat cheap and woebegone roulette outfit. The furnishings were sparse and crude. There were a few native mats on the floor, a few stools—the walls were bare. Likewise the lighting was anything but elaborate. The use of electricity involved dealings with those who were quite outside the pale, who might wonder at the amount of current used and the why of it, and who might even demand the right to inspect or make repairs to their property at inconvenient seasons. Therefore Java Dick used lamps.

But even in the rather dull light afforded by the lamps, an illumination which was in no way enhanced by the smoke-laden atmosphere, Bob Kingsley blinked as his guide conducted him to the lower end of the roulette table, and made a place for him by inconspicuously shoving aside those who were clustered three deep around it. And here, he stood with difficulty on his feet. The young Chinaman brought him a stool. Bob Kingsley smiled faintly, pulled his cap down on his forehead, pushed it to the back of his head again, and more or less collapsed on the stool.

Still blinking, he stared around the table. Every native race and every shade of color seemed to be represented: There was a Negro, there an East Indian, there a Chinaman, there a little coal-black chap that might have been a Solomon Islander—but all of them the scum of their kind; filthy in their dress, what little of it some of them wore; an ugly depravity in the face of every last one of them. Those whose places he had taken scowled at him savagely, but they made no effort to recover their lost vantage point. Not only was he hopelessly drunk, a condition that they understood intimately; but, from the marked attention he had received, he obviously stood high in Java Dick's favor—so they merely crowded in behind him again.

The bets that were being made, though numerous, were paltry, for the assemblage was not one of affluence; and after several futile efforts, during which he preserved his balance on the stool miraculously, Bob Kingsley produced a coin and threw it out on the table. It rolled as drunkenly as its owner, and finally came to rest far up the board. But Bob Kingsley's head was down on his sprawled arms now. He was apparently oblivious to the fact that he had made a small winning, and that several coins besides his own were pushed toward him by a grinning Malay in a flowered blouse who acted as croupier. The coins remained unnoticed and untouched in front of him—but not for long! Presently a hand reached stealthily out from behind and filched them.

At times Bob Kingsley raised his head and stared vacantly around him; but, for the most part, his head lay buried in his arms and hands, and he watched the faces up and down the table through his fingers. He could have fallen on no better luck! Not only were these the choicest types for his purpose, but there were more of them than he had hoped for—therefore the more quickly and the more widely they would spread the tale of the little ivory idol for him. But they must know a little something about it to impress them with its significance. It was simple enough, by means of any one of a dozen drunken, clumsy, and apparently unintentional acts, to let them all see the idol; but the mere sight of it alone would mean nothing to them. That was where Java Dick would come in. A man, prompted by drink—Bob Kingsley's lips twitched quizzically behind his hands—talked overloudly sometimes even when disclosing in strictest confidence what was intended for the ears of a single intimate alone. Therefore he must wait for Java Dick. But he was in no hurry. The night was young yet—not more than ten o'clock.

His head went lower on his arms to hide another smile—not quite so quizzical this time. If Verna could see him here like this! Black Bob—in one of "the worst stink-pots of Asia! Oh, well—he barely suppressed a shrug of his shoulders—what difference would it make! One couldn't go beyond the dress, and he was already there in her estimation. Anyway, she was safe now in Kalawa with the Crowleys for the time being at least; and she would be safe for all time if he succeeded tonight in focusing the attention of Chen-shu's crowd upon himself. It was the idol they wanted—and they would know before he was through that he had it. Not Verna! She was to fade out of the picture. He had told her that.

His fingers dug at his jowls and left red marks. Yes, and fade out of his life, too! He wondered if he would ever see her again. Not much chance! His fingers dug deeper. The main thing to-night was her safety—that, and the hope that the trap he baited would bring about the fulfillment of his promise, to the helpless old man who dragged himself around in that wheel-chair out there in Patua—the promise that justice should fall upon the heads of the murderous swine who had done another of the Kingsley name to death at Kalawa.

Kalawa! His mind went back to Kalawa. Verna was here. A bit unexpected, that attitude of hers toward the Crowleys! She had not shown any antipathy toward them when she had met them on the beach; on the contrary, she seemed to have put herself in their hands almost willingly. Perhaps it was that jovial face of Crowley, or the motherly smile of the wife! Anyway, it had been—

Bob Kingsley's mental soliloquy came to a sudden and definite termination. He felt his pulse quicken, felt the blood pounding at his temples. A newcomer had joined the group around the table. The man hadn't come from the direction of Tao Lin's specious antechamber, but from one of the other gambling rooms. Bob Kingsley stared through his laced fingers. No, he wasn't the sport of his own imagination! The man was Won Fu.

Bob Kingsley let his head sink down upon the table. He had been right, then, in his belief that Chen-shu would not overlook so ready and easy a means of getting away from Aoru as was afforded by the presence there of that small schooner which Nana had seen. Chen-shu and his lot were here in Singapore—and had probably reached here even ahead of the Alfa. His own detour to touch at Kalawa would account for that, of course.

DIVORCE MILL CASE ARGUED

Perjury Charged in Divorce Action at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, April 19.—Final arguments were in progress here today in the Cleveland-Rochester "divorce mill" case in connection with which Abraham Goldman, Cleveland, is on trial, charged with perjury.

Jonas Abrams, Cleveland attorney, who faces disbarment charges, may go on trial for alleged subornation of perjury depending upon the outcome of Goldman's trial.

In making a plea for Goldman yesterday, defense Attorney David Anderson said his client was "least guilty of all concerned." Mrs. Mabel Whalen and Mrs. Ruby Melike, of Rochester, N. Y., who sought divorces in Cleveland, and who were cited for contempt of court for giving false addresses therewith, appeared as witnesses at Goldman's trial. Mrs. Melike testified she had been instructed by Attorney Abrams to give testimony that she had lived for two years in one of Goldman's Cleveland houses previous to filing her divorce petition.

COURT REVERSES COMMISSION

Denies Permit for Freight Fees in Seneca County.

COLUMBUS, O., April 19.—The Ohio supreme court today reversed the action of the state utilities commission which some weeks ago authorized the Huber Motor Transportation company to conduct a regular route motor freight service over several regular routes out of Green Springs, Seneca county.

The supreme court's decision was in response to appeals by the Lake Shore Electric Railway company and by Ed C. Helle, who operates a freight motor 'us line under the name of the Toledo-Tiffin Motor Freight company.

Helle and the Lake Shore company contended that the commission acted improperly when it altered its records so as to make it appear that the original authorization, under which the Huber company operates, was for service over regular routes, instead of over irregular routes.

The commission's original authorization, which was given to Bertha M. Huger, was an "irregular" certificate. This certificate, later, was transferred to the Huber company which, some months ago, asked the commission to alter its records and designate the certificate as "regular." The commission complied with this request despite protests filed by the Lake Shore company and by Helle.

SMITH NOT ON POLITICAL TOUR

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 19.—Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York, outstanding candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, is spending a two weeks' vacation at Asheville and is not on a political tour.

The governor himself had to make this plain today to various southern party stalwarts who sought his appearance in scattered sections of the south.

He is not even talking politics while on his vacation.

Buenos Aires has established the first school for vocational guidance in South America.

CAPLAN LEASES OLD FACTORY

Metal Dealer Moves to Jefferson and Eighth Streets.

The Samuel Caplan company, iron and metal dealers, today announced the removal of their headquarters from their former location at 613 Jefferson street to the corner of Jefferson and Eighth street, on the Horn switch.

The Caplan company will be located in the building formerly occupied by the Louthan Manufacturing company, having leased the structure.

Marion Woman Honored.

LIMA, O., April 19.—Mrs. William N. Harder, of Marion, today was the president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, succeeding Dr. Josephine L. Pierce, of this city. The election was held late yesterday.

Products of 42 countries were received into Paraguay last year.

Stop Stubborn Indigestion and Chronic Stomach Distress

All Druggists Make This Offer
Money Back If One Bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin
Doesn't do you More Good than Anything you ever used

At last the way has been found to combine Pepsin with other corrective stomach agents so that it will do the most good in the shortest possible time.

Why bother with slow actors when one tablespoonful of this splendid and pleasant liquid remedy will cause gas, bloating, heaviness, heartburn or any upset condition of the stomach to speedily vanish.

And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with indigestion or any stomach misery when the remedy that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

Dare's Mentha Pepsin not only quickly relieves stomach distress, but it also conquers stubborn indigestion and dyspepsia, and put an end to dizziness, nervousness, headache, sleeplessness and dependency which distressing troubles are nearly always caused by chronic stomach disturbance.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin is pleasant to take, has a delightfully refreshing taste and after it has put your stomach in a clean and healthy condition, just notice how much better you look and feel, for besides correcting chronic stomach disorders this supremely good remedy that druggists everywhere guarantee, is a fine tonic that builds you up and makes you work with vim, eat with relish and sleep soundly.
